Something Personal

I am 5th in a family of 6 children. My childhood included weekly visits to the zoo, the beach and the Naval Air Station (where my mother directed the choir on Sunday mornings) in San Diego, CA. I joined the USAF right out of high school and allowed the Air Force to put me through college. I have been married for 31 years, with two adopted children. Emily, my daughter, is 20 and a graduate of Palo Verde High School. She is attending UNR. Peter, my son, is 18. He works in the food industry and is attending Thompson High School. I was a foster parent for 7 years. I met the Lord when I was 14 in San Diego, CA. My family and I came to Las Vegas in July of 1999. It was 116 degrees! My husband Dave and I have been members of Desert Spring United Methodist Church since May of 2005.

My hobbies are: country decorating, biking, walking, swimming, sewing, music, teaching, motorcycle riding and pets!!
